Atum fills project pipeline for development syndicate

Atum Capital has secured the first two projects for its newly-launched Atum Residential Development Trust. The sites in Wimbledon and Blackheath will be acquired by the syndicate and built-out to provide 17 apartments.

A proportion of the development profits, and any further equity subscribed as a result of the current offering, will be re-invested in further similar projects over the syndicate's three-year life.

Real Estate Associates Ltd is providing Atum Capital with structuring advice and will act as the Trust's administrator.
