REAL in Number One position...

Real Estate Associates Ltd have relocated their London offices to new premises at One Heddon Street, around 400 yards along Regent Street from the previous location at CountyMark House.

The move makes way for building works by the Crown Estate, whose comprehensive redevelopment of the Regent Street Quadrant approaching Piccadilly Circus has received planning consent. The scheme includes the development of a new luxury hotel replacing the Café Royal and REAL's former offices at CountyMark House.

The CountyMark site was last redeveloped in the 1920's to become offices for the County Fire Office, who held a long lease from the Crown. Our new offices in a newly-refurbished Crown Estates building also have a rich history – including a view over the rooftop site of The Beatles' last concert!
